Suspension of the Rules

Suspension of the rules is a tool used by legislators to do something that would not normally be allowed under parliamentary procedure. For example:

- A) Considering a bill out of order from the posted Calendar
- B) Offering an amendment at a time not proper for amendments
- C) Requesting to speak a third time on the same issue
- D) Allow members to remove ties and jackets on warm days

Suspension of the Rules is not a common practice

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator.

MEMBER: Thank you Mr./Madam President. I move we suspend the rules for the purpose of _____.

PRESIDENT: The Senator has moved that we suspend the rules for the purpose of _____. Is there any objection to suspending the rules?

MEMBER: I object.

MEMBER: If no member objects...

PRESIDENT: Hearing objection, the Chair will order a division. Suspension of the rules requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds the members present and voting.

PRESIDENT: (Gavel) It's a vote! (Announce that the rule has been suspended and take appropriate action)

PRESIDENT: The pending question is the motion to suspend the rules. All those in favor will rise and remain standing until the count is complete. (Gavel to sit)

PRESIDENT: All those opposed will rise and remain standing until the count is complete. (Gavel to sit)

PRESIDENT: ____ having voted in the affirmative and ____ in the negative, ____ being more/less than two-thirds, the motion to suspend the rules Passes/Fails.

(2/3 is 24 or more)

- Not Debatable (member trying to debate is out of order)

Non-Concurrent Matters

1. A bill is a Non-Concurrent Matter when the Senate and House don't agree.
2. Three motions are in order:
 - Recede and Concur - Agree with the House.
 - Insist and Ask for a Committee of Conference - Meet and try to compromise.
 - Adhere - Stick with your original action.

PRESIDENT: Non-Concurrent Matter.

SECRETARY: Bill number _____ is a non-concurrent matter. The Senate voted _____ and the House voted _____.

PRESIDENT: Is there a motion before the Senate?

MEMBER: I move that the Senate Recede and Concur / Adhere.
